Code of Conduct for Parents/People with Parental Responsibility

Parents and parents with parental responsibility at Coventry Godiva Harriers are expected to abide by the UKA Code of Conduct for Parents.

As a responsible Parent/Person with Parental Responsibility you will:

- Cooperate fully with others involved in the sport such as coaches, technical officials, team managers, doctors, physiotherapists, sport scientists and representatives of the governing body in the best interests of the athlete.
- Never place undue pressure on children or young people to perform, participate or compete.
- Check out the qualifications and licences of people who are coaching or managing your child or offering a service connected to athletics such as physiotherapy, massage or nutritional advice.
- Inform your child's coach or team manager of any illness or disability that needs to be taken into consideration for athletic performance.
- Return any necessary written consent forms to the club/team manager or appropriate person, including next of kin details, health and medical requirements before your child goes to any away events or trips.
- Report any concerns you have about your child's or any other child's welfare to the Club Welfare Officers, Regional, National or UKA Welfare Officers. (This does not affect your right to contact your local social services or the police if you feel it is necessary).
- Abide by and support any regulations/guidance put in place by the University of Warwick and Warwick Sport when using their facilities.
