Overview

Coaches and coaching are essential for the health and success of our sport; they are often rightly referred to as the lifeblood of the sport. Coaches are the key people who help ensure that those who take part in our sport have fun, as well as help them work towards and achieve their goals and aspirations.

Given their role, coaches frequently have positions of trust, influence and potential power with those they coach, the UKA code of conduct for coaches provides clear guidance on the standards of conduct to which CGH coaches are expected to adhere to at all times.

Overview adapted from the UKA coaching code of practice, 2018
